Scottish Athletics Limited

Information for applicants for the position of

Track and Field Commission Member (5 posts - Voluntary)

Are YOU interested in playing a part in the future direction of scottishathletics, voted Governing Body of the Year in 2016 and 2017?

The Track and Field Commission are always looking for people with fresh ideas and are now looking to recruit new members to the Commission. Would you like to be part of a successful, forward thinking organisation as it looks to improve the Track and Field competition pathway over the coming years?

Main duties include

- attendance at a minimum of 3 meetings per year alternating between Glasgow and Edinburgh or by conference call.
- working with scottishathletics to ensure the successful delivery of championship events.
- working with scottishathletics to continue to improve the competition pathway for all athletes in Scotland.

Time Commitment

- a minimum of 3 evening meetings per year.
- time to keep up to date with circulated minutes.
- involvement with sub groups of the Track and Field Commission may require extra time.

What you might have to offer?

- a genuine interest in all aspects of Track and Field Athletics.
- previous experience as an athlete, coach, parent, official or club administrator.
- a willingness to engage in dialogue to look at how the competition pathway for athletes in Scotland can be further improved.

Salary

This is a voluntary position. Travel will be reimbursed at scottishathletics current rates.

Any questions regarding the post should be directed to Alasdhair Love, National Events Manager at alasdhair.love@scottishathletics.org.uk

Application Process

Applicants should apply by submitting:

- Application form (personal details and experiences)
- Covering letter (addressing how the applicant's skills and expertise fit with the role)
- Equal opportunities form (this form is separated from application when received and will remain anonymous, confidential, and will not form part of the selection process)

marked "private and confidential", to Francesca Snitjer, (or email to francesca.snitjer@scottishathletics.org.uk) at
