

Scottish Athletics Limited

Privacy Notice for the Rest of the World

Introduction

We are committed to respecting your privacy. This Privacy Notice explains in detail the types of personal data we may collect before, during and after your relationship with us. It also explains how we will store and handle that data, and how we keep it safe. This notice explains how we comply with the law on data protection and what your rights are.

This notice applies to you if you are either:

1. Not an employee/potential employee, casual worker/potential casual worker, volunteer or individual member with/of Scottish Athletics or an individual to whom we have provided a specific privacy notice.
2. A fan or supporter of the sport of Athletics who has contacted us to purchase any of our online products and/or signed up to receive updates about upcoming events, offers and ways to get involved further with the sport.

References to “we”, “our” or “us” in this privacy notice are to Scottish Athletics Limited (company number SC217377), registered at Caledonia House, South Gyle, Edinburgh, EH12 9DQ.

What we do

Scottish Athletics Limited (scottishathletics) is the National Governing Body for Athletics in Scotland. A company limited by guarantee (established 2001), scottishathletics is affiliated to UK Athletics, which in turn affiliates to the International Association of Athletics Federations (IAAF) and International Paralympic Committee (IPC).

We are in practice an organisation made up of our member clubs. There are approximately 150 athletics clubs across Scotland – offering opportunities for people of all ages to try out, train, embrace and compete in the various disciplines of athletics – and at all levels from jogging (through our jogscotland network) to Commonwealth and Olympic Games levels. As an organisation, our structure and business is to a large degree controlled by the Memorandum and our Articles of Association.

What we need scottishathletics will be a “controller” of your personal information provided to us.

We may collect some or all of the following types of personal information about you depending on your interaction with us:

- contact details – information that allows us to contact you directly such as your name, postal address, email address, phone numbers;
- personal contact details that you provide for emergency contacts;
- payment details you provide to us so that we may receive or make payments to you, and the details and records of those financial transactions with you;
- all information included as part of the process in establishing whether to enter into or continue a business relationship with you;
- personal history and information, including family details, medical conditions and dietary requirements;
- identification documents such as passport, birth certificate, utility bills, etc.;
- any disciplinary and grievance information;

- records of your interactions with us such as telephone conversations, emails and other correspondence and your instructions to us;
- responses to surveys, competitions and promotions: we keep records of any surveys you respond to or your entry into any competition or promotion we run;
- equality information – disability, gender reassignment, race (which includes ethnic or national origin, colour or nationality), religion or belief, sex (gender) and sexual orientation;
- records of your attendance at any events or competitions hosted by us and our partnership organisations and other event organisers; and

If you are providing us with details of next of kin, family members and emergency contacts they have a right to know and to be aware of what personal information we hold about them, how we collect it and how we use and may share that information. Please share this privacy notice with those of them whom you feel are sufficiently mature to understand it. They also have the same rights as set out in the “Your rights” section below.

Why we need your personal information – contractual purposes

We need to collect your personal information so that we can manage our relationship.

We will use your personal information to:

- provide you with core services;
- provide you with requested information and send you communications relevant to you;
- deal with your queries or complaints, claims, legal disputes or raise queries, claims, legal disputes or complaints with you;
- enter into and perform contracts, where we may be supplying products/services to you and/or you may be supplying products/services to us or we may be involved in similar arrangements with third parties; and
- maintain and improve our services and/or products.

If you do not provide us with all of the personal information that we need to collect, then this may affect our ability to offer the above services.

Why we need your personal information – legitimate purposes

We also process your personal information in pursuit of our legitimate interests to:

- promote scottishathletics by sending communications for upcoming opportunities. Our competitions and events may be filmed for live streaming purposes and your personal information may also be used in images captured from our competitions and events, which we use for promotional, education and development purposes;
- monitor and develop participation in scottishathletics by monitoring engagement and participation through attendance and inviting you to participate in surveys for researching and development purposes;
- assist in delivering new programs for strategic development of the sport;
- respond to and communicate with you regarding your questions, comments, support needs or complaints, concerns or allegations in relation to scottishathletics or to raise queries, claims, legal disputes or complaints with you; and
- manage our relationship with you and to operate our organisation.

Where we process your personal information in pursuit of our legitimate interests, you have the right to object to us using your personal information for the above purposes. If you wish to object to any of the above processing, please contact us at dataprotection@scottishathletics.org.uk If we agree and comply with your objection, this may affect our ability to undertake the tasks above.

Why we need your personal information – legal obligations

We are under a legal obligation to process certain personal information for the purposes of complying with our obligations under:

- our sportscotland and Scottish Government regulatory requirements to report on the size, achievements and profile of our members; and
- the Equality Act 2010, which requires us to process personal information to make reasonable adjustments where necessary.

Why we need your personal information – equality monitoring requirements

We are required to use our members' personal information relating to your disability, gender reassignment, race (which includes ethnic or national origin, colour or nationality), religion or belief, sex (gender) and sexual orientation, for equality monitoring purposes as required by sportscotland and as part of our accreditation process for the Equality Standard for Sport.

We will process such personal information through aggregated and anonymised reports to identify and keep under review the existence or absence of equality of opportunity or treatment between groups of people within the same categories to promote or maintain equality within our sport.

Other uses of your personal information

We may ask you if we can process your personal information for additional purposes. Where we do so, we will provide you with an additional privacy notice with information on how we will use your information for these additional purposes.

We may be asked by our member clubs to collect and store personal information about their individual members. Where we do this, the clubs have a responsibility as "controllers" to provide their members with privacy notices and we will not use such personal information for any other purpose.

Who we share your personal information with

If your personal information is included in any images or videos we take, or are taken on our behalf, we may share this with event or official project partners, including but not limited to Vinco, Brand Oath, Team Scotland and sportscotland, for promotional and/or journalistic purposes. We may also use such images and videos across the scottishathletics and jogscotland program media channels and social media platforms, including but not limited to our websites, our You Tube channel, Facebook page and Twitter feed as well as Instagram and Snapchat.

We may be required to share personal information with statutory or regulatory authorities and organisations to comply with statutory obligations, such as assisting with the investigation and prevention of crime and the protection of national security. Organisations include the Health & Safety Executive, Disclosure Scotland, and Police Scotland for the purposes of safeguarding children and vulnerable adults, local authorities, such as social work, education (including named persons).

We may also share personal information with our professional and legal advisors for the purposes of taking advice.

scottishathletics employs third party suppliers to provide services, for example, payment processors, promotional advisors, contractors or suppliers and IT services (including, websites and web portal platforms and video). These suppliers may process personal information on our behalf as “processors” and are subject to written contractual conditions to only process that personal information under our instructions and protect it in accordance with existing legislation on data protection. In the event that we do share personal information with external third parties, we will only share such personal information strictly required for the specific purposes and take reasonable steps to ensure that recipients shall only process the disclosed personal information in accordance with those purposes. If we stop using their services, any personal data held by them will be deleted.

We may also share your personal information with our supply chain partners and sub-contractors, such as couriers, travel and logistics providers, printing and event fulfilment providers.

We may also be required to share personal information relating to health in order to undertake activities to eliminate doping, at a sporting event, within our sport generally, or to provide information about doping, or suspected doping, to UK Anti-Doping or another body with responsibility for eliminating doping in our sport.

We may also share your information with other governing bodies or regional bodies for the sports covered by our organisation to allow them to properly administer the sports on a local, regional, national and international level, and with UK Athletics to maintain your records within and access to database and website systems.

How we protect your personal information

Your personal information is stored on our electronic filing system and our servers based in the EU, and is accessed by our staff and volunteers for the purposes set out above. In some circumstances we may use third parties located outside the EU, but will ensure they are signed up to the “Privacy Shield”.

Where your personal information is transferred outside the EU, we will provide you with information regarding the safeguards that we have put in place with the recipient country to protect your personal information.

How long we keep your personal information

We will only keep your personal information for as long as necessary. Unless you ask us not to, we will review and possibly delete your personal information where you have not engaged with us for six years.

We will keep certain personal information for longer in order to confirm your identity, when you engaged with scottishathletics and for how long. We need to do this to satisfy our current and potential insurance obligations in the event of a claim against scottishathletics.

Your rights

You can exercise any of the following rights by writing to us at Data Protection, scottishathletics, Caledonia House, South Gyle, Edinburgh, EH12 9DQ, or dataprotection@scottishathletics.org.uk

Your rights in relation to your personal information are:

- you have a right to request access to the personal information that we hold about you by making a “subject access request”;
- if you believe that any of your personal information is inaccurate or incomplete, you have a right to request that we correct or complete your personal information;

- you have a right to request that we restrict the processing of your personal information for specific purposes; and
- if you wish us to delete your personal information, you may request that we do so.

Any requests received by scottishathletics will be considered under applicable data protection legislation. If you remain dissatisfied, you have a right to raise a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office at www.ico.org.uk
